Future Continuous

1. Choose the right answer

1. b) 'll be having At 8 dinner will be in progress.
2. a) 'll be waiting The waiting will be in progress when you arrive.
3. a) 'll be living In progress at a future moment (this time next month).
4. b) working After will be, use the -ing form.
5. b) will know Know is a state verb, so it isn't used in the continuous.

2. Correct the mistake

1. Don't call at 10. I'll be working then. At 10 the work will already be in progress, so use will be + -ing.
2. I'll know the results tomorrow. Know is a state verb, so it isn't used in the continuous.
3. Will you be coming to the party? After will be, use the -ing form.

3. Your turn

Answers will vary. Check that each sentence follows the rule on page 1, or paste them into Clarigram to have them checked.
